

MANAGING RISK ASSESSMENTS IN A BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT

Course Overview

This 1-day course is designed to provide participants with the knowledge and practical skills needed to effectively manage risk assessments in a business environment. It covers the key principles of identifying, assessing, and controlling risks to ensure workplace safety and compliance with legal requirements. This course is ideal for managers, supervisors, and employees responsible for health and safety within their organisations. This course is suited for managers, team leaders, health and safety officers, and employees responsible for conducting or overseeing risk assessments in the workplace. It is suitable for those across all industries looking to ensure compliance and improve workplace safety.

Duration

1 Day

Price

£250

Accreditation

Clear Quality

What Will I Learn?

- ✓ Understand the legal framework and responsibilities for managing risks.
- ✓ Be able to conduct thorough risk assessments and implement control measures.
- ✓ Gain practical skills in identifying and managing workplace hazards.
- ✓ Know how to effectively document and review risk assessments to ensure ongoing safety and compliance.

What Skills Will I Gain?

- ✓ Understanding risk assessment legislation and legal requirements.
- ✓ The five steps of risk assessment: identify, assess, control, record, and review.
- ✓ Identifying potential hazards in the workplace.
- ✓ Assessing risks and determining appropriate control measures.
- ✓ Implementing and reviewing risk management procedures Best practices for maintaining a safe and compliant working environment.

All of our short courses can be delivered in a classroom environment or via Microsoft teams. To discuss your training needs further please contact us here at: training@clearquality.co.uk